

Lesson 7

Psalm 10:4

Because he is proud, that evil person doesn't turn to the Lord. There is no room for God in any of his thoughts.

God Makes a Covenant With Noah

Genesis 9:8–19, 28–29

⁸Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons who were with him. He said, ⁹“I am now making My covenant with you and with all your children who will be born after you. ¹⁰I am making it also with every living creature that was with you in the ark. I am making My covenant with the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals. I am making it with all the creatures that came out of the ark with you. In fact, I am making it with every living thing on earth. ¹¹Here is My covenant I am making with you. The waters of a flood will never again destroy all life. A flood will never again destroy the earth.”

¹²God continued, “My covenant is between Me and you and every living creature with you. It is a covenant for all time to come. Here is the sign of the covenant I am making. ¹³I have put My rainbow in the clouds. It will be the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴Sometimes when I bring clouds over the earth, a rainbow will appear in them. ¹⁵Then I will remember My covenant between Me and you and every kind of living creature. The waters will never again become a flood to destroy all life. ¹⁶When the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it. I will remember that My covenant will last forever. It is a covenant between Me and every kind of living creature on earth.”

¹⁷So God said to Noah, “The rainbow is the sign of My covenant. I have made My covenant between Me and all life on earth.”

¹⁸The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹The people who were scattered over the earth came from Noah's three sons.

²⁸After the flood Noah lived 350 years. ²⁹Noah lived a total of 950 years. And then he died.

The Tower of Babel

Genesis 11:1–9

¹The whole world had only one language, and everyone spoke it. ²They moved to the east and found a broad valley in Babylon. There they made their home.

³They said to one another, “Come on! Let’s make bricks and bake them well.” They used bricks instead of stones. They used tar to hold the bricks together. ⁴Then they said, “Come on! Let’s build a city for ourselves. Let’s build a tower that reaches to the sky. We’ll make a name for ourselves. Then we won’t be scattered over the whole earth.”

⁵But the Lord came down to see the city and the tower the people were building. ⁶He said, “All these people are united and speak the same language. That is why they can do all this. Now they will be able to do anything they plan. ⁷Come on! Let Us go down and mix up their language. Then they will not be able to understand one another.”

⁸So the Lord scattered them from there over the whole earth. And they stopped building the city. ⁹There the Lord mixed up the language of the whole world. That’s why the city was called Babel. From there the Lord scattered them over the whole earth.
