

Lesson 21

Psalm 86:5, 7–13 (written by the Sons of Korah)

<sup>5</sup>Lord, You are forgiving and good.

You are full of love for all who call out to You.

...

<sup>7</sup>When I'm in trouble, I will call out to You.

And You will answer me.

<sup>8</sup>Lord, there's no one like You among the gods.

No one can do what You do.

<sup>9</sup>Lord, all the nations You have made will come and worship You.

They will bring glory to You.

<sup>10</sup>You are great. You do wonderful things.

You alone are God.

<sup>11</sup>Lord, teach me how You want me to live.

Do this so that I will depend on You, my faithful God.

Give me a heart that doesn't want anything more than to worship You.

<sup>12</sup>Lord my God, I will praise You with all my heart.

I will bring glory to You forever.

You have kept me from going down into the place of the dead.

Psalm 90:1-6, 12 (written by Moses)

<sup>1</sup>Lord, from the very beginning

You have been like a home to us.

<sup>2</sup>Before You created the whole world and the mountains were made, from the beginning to the end You are God.

<sup>3</sup>You turn human beings back to dust.

You say to them, "Return to dust."

<sup>4</sup>To You a thousand years

are like a day that has just gone by.

They are like a few hours of the night.

<sup>5</sup>Yet You sweep people away, and they die.

They are like new grass that grows in the morning.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning it springs up new,

but by evening it's all dried up.

...

<sup>12</sup>Teach us to realize how short our lives are.

Then our hearts will become wise.
