

Lesson 9

Psalm 34:1–22 (written by David)

- ¹I will thank the Lord at all times.
My lips will always praise Him.
- ²I will find my glory in knowing the Lord.
Let those who are hurting hear me and be joyful.
- ³Join me in giving glory to the Lord.
Let us honour Him together.
- ⁴I looked to the Lord, and He answered me.
He saved me from everything I was afraid of.
- ⁵Those who look to Him have joyful faces.
They are never covered with shame.
- ⁶This poor man called out, and the Lord heard him.
He saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the Lord stands guard
around those who have respect for Him.
And He saves them.
- ⁸Taste and see that the Lord is good.
Blessed is the person who goes to Him for safety.
- ⁹You holy people of God, have respect for the Lord.
Those who respect Him have everything they need.
- ¹⁰The lions may grow weak and hungry.
But those who look to the Lord have every good thing they need.
- ¹¹My children, come. Listen to me.
I will teach you to have respect for the Lord.
- ¹²Do you love life
and want to see many good days?
- ¹³Then keep your tongues from speaking evil.
Keep your lips from telling lies.
- ¹⁴Turn away from evil, and do good.
Look for peace, and go after it.
- ¹⁵The Lord looks with favour on those who are godly.
His ears are open to their cry.

¹⁶But the Lord doesn't look with favour on those who do evil.
He removes all memory of them from the earth.

¹⁷Godly people cry out, and the Lord hears them.
He saves them from all their troubles.

¹⁸The Lord is close to those whose hearts have been broken.
He saves those whose spirits have been crushed.

¹⁹The person who does what is right may have many troubles.
But the Lord saves him from all of them.

²⁰The Lord watches over all his bones.
Not one of them will be broken.

²¹Sinners will be killed by their own evil.
The enemies of godly people will be judged.

²²The Lord will save those who serve Him.
No one who goes to Him for safety will be found guilty.
